Which type* of Inactive Endorsement® do you require (see below)?

By what date do you plan to re-activate?

Read and sign page two of this document and return the entire application to miaimh.easy.imhe@gmail.com.

Inactive Type A: Endorsed professional continues with on-going requirements for membership and 15 hours of specialized in-service training annually, but is unable to receive 12 hours of RSC. The endorsed professional should plan to reactivate within two years. Those eligible for Inactive Type A includes those endorsed as Infant Family Specialists, IMH Specialists and IMH Mentors.

Inactive Type B: Endorsed professional continues with on-going requirements for membership, but is unable to receive neither 15 hours of specialized in-service training nor receive 12 hours of RSC annually. The endorsed professional should plan to reactivate within two years. Type B does require a minimum of 4 hours of specialized in-service training annually. All endorsed professionals are eligible for Inactive Type B.

Retired: Endorsed professional continues with on-going requirements for membership and 6 hours of specialized in-service training annually, but no longer receives RSC and has no plan to reactivate. All endorsed professionals are eligible for Retired status.

Inactive Endorsement® Status Agreement:

- I understand that my name will be moved from the Endorsement® Registry to the Inactive Endorsement® Registry
- I understand that I can remain inactive for up to two years (unless changing status to Retired)
- If after two years, I am unable to reactivate, I understand that I must reapply for inactive status
- I understand that I must maintain my membership with MI-AIMH (or another IMH association) or risk be removed from the Endorsement® Registry entirely
- I understand that I must submit my Annual Endorsement® Renewal via my.mi-aimh.org that documents my 15 hours of specialized in-service training if selecting Type A
- I understand that I must submit my Annual Endorsement® Renewal via my.mi-aimh.org that documents my 4 hours of specialized in-service training if selecting Type B
- I understand that I must submit my Annual Endorsement® Renewal via my.mi-aimh.org that documents my 6 hours of specialized in-service training if selecting Retired
- I understand that I must submit an Application for Reactivation and pay a Reactivation Fee of $25 when I am ready to move back to the Endorsement® Registry
- I understand that while on inactive status, I will not use the IMH-E® credential after my name and I will not promote myself as actively endorsed or as a provider of reflective supervision/consultation
- I understand that if I do not adhere to the Policy for Inactive Endorsement® Status, I risk being removed from the Endorsement® Registry entirely
- I understand that if I am removed from the Endorsement® Registry, I will need to follow the Policy for Reinstatement in order to be placed back on the Endorsement® Registry
- Policies can be found at:
