Monday, 4:15 pm

You will have the opportunity to browse the student posters and converse with new researchers studying infants, toddlers and families and examine their project outcomes. At the same time, you will have the opportunity to connect with the “next generation” of leaders in the field. Light appetizers and cash bar will be available. At the conclusion of the event, we will be raffling off gifts that will be helpful to any practitioner working with infants, toddlers and their families. NextGen attendees who have been in the field of IMH for less than 5-years will receive two raffle tickets; all other attendees will receive one raffle ticket. We hope you will join us for a fun way to connect with our student researchers and colleagues in the field! (594 spots left)

MI-AIMH Goes to the Movies: Monday 7:15 pm

"Philomena" is based on a true story about an elderly Irish woman searching for the toddler son she gave up for adoption as an unwed teen living in a convent. For the next 50 years, she searched tirelessly for her son. When former BBC correspondent Martin Sixsmith (Steve Coogan) learns of the story, he becomes her ally. They travel together to America to find Anthony and become unexpectedly close in the process. Plan for a discussion moderated by Dr. William Shafer to take place (includes 1.0 CEU). (194 spots left)
