

Scholarship Application

Metro Detroit Association for Infant Mental Health

Guidelines for Application:

1. To apply for a MD-AIMH scholarship, you must be a member of MD-AIMH or be recommended by a member.
  2. For an approved scholarship application, MD-AIMH will provide the applicant with 80% of the training/conference fee, up to a maximum of $150.00, whichever is the lesser amount.
  3. Scholarship applications should be forwarded to the current MD-AIMH Board President no later than one month prior to the training/conference payment deadline (see e-mail address below).
  4. A scholarship application committee will include two executive committee members (president and treasurer) and one board / committee member. The president or treasurer will notify the applicant when a scholarship is approved.
  5. Special consideration will be given to applicants who are willing to write an approved article for the MD-AIMH newsletter or be available to lead a discussion and/or training at a chapter sponsored professional development event.
  6. The maximum amount an applicant can receive per application per year is $150.00.
